

Manford Lewis Hypes

Manford Lewis Hypes, 79, of Summersville, WV died Saturday, November 1, 2014 in the CAMC-General Division Hospital in Charleston. Born June 5, 1935 at Tipton, WV, he was the son of the late Shirley and Florence Hypes. He was also preceded in death by his children, Manford Hypes, Jr., Sandra Hypes, and Jerry Allen Hypes; sister, Ruby Hypes; brother, Daniel Hypes.

He was a member of the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Korean War Army veteran, retired from the MTA with over 30 years of service. He started the First Independent Baptist Church in Summersville which started in 1976, a graduate of Tennessee Temple, a former employee of Allison Aircraft, was a former chaplain for the VFW, and former hospital chaplain.

Survivors include his loving wife, Correna Hartley Hypes; children, Brenda Morton and husband Timothy of Sutton, WV, Rodney Hypes and wife Sandra of Summersville; four sisters, Thelma James of Summersville, Judy Crowder of Tipton, Sharon McCutcheon of Canvas, and Connie Shaddock of Tipton; four brothers, Roger, Dale, Nelson, and Doug Hypes all of Tipton; four grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 5, 2014 in the White Funeral Home at Summersville with Pastors Tony Maynard and Butch Collins officiating. Interment will follow in the Ward Road Cemetery at Nettie. Nicholas County Honor Guard will perform military grave rites at the cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home on Wednesday one hour prior to the services.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.whitefuneralhomewv.com