

Norman L. Rexrode, Sr.

Norman L. Rexrode, Sr. of Summersville, WV was greeted by his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on June 2, 2014 in Lebanon, VA. He was born September 29, 1926 in Fort Seybert, WV.

He was a co-founder of the Nicholas County Potato Festival. He was a WWII Navy veteran. He was the WVU agricultural extension agent in Nicholas County from 1955-1984 and assistant agent in Pocahontas County. He was a nurturer of both plants and people.

He is survived by his wife of 65 1/2 years, Hicle, his children, son Norman Jr. (Jamie), daughters Barbara (Fred) Williams, Jane (Mark) Jones, and Susan (Wayne) Butcher; Grandchildren Mike, Keri, Jonathan, Lara, Noah, and Emily; Great-grandchildren Sam, Quintin, Chloe, Hannah, and Max.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Noah and Tressie Rexrode, brothers Rex and Fredreck, and sister Mary Belle Dove.

The family will receive friends from 6-8 Thursday, June 5 at White Funeral Home in Summersville. Services will be held Friday at 1:00 at the Funeral Home. Burial will be at WV Memorial Gardens in Calvin. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to your local food pantry in his memory.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.whitefuneralhomewv.com