

ELWOOD "JACK" TAYLOR

Elwood Jackson "Jack" Taylor, 89, of Summersville, WV died Saturday, November 8, 2014 in the VA Medical Center at Beckley. Born April 18, 1925 at Summersville, he was a son of the late Homer Jackson and Anna E. Brock Taylor. He was also preceded in death by his son, Darius Wayne Taylor and by three sisters, Erma Lee Irvine, Marjorie Walker, and Juanita Donelson.

He was a Baptist by faith, a member of the Purple Heart Association, an Army veteran of World War II, was retired from LeRose Motors as a parts manager with over twenty years of service, and was a member of the NRA.

Survivors include his wife of sixty-six years, Pauline Frame Taylor; children, Monica Lay and Jeffrey and his wife, Beverly Taylor, all of Summersville; one brother, Bernice Taylor of Summersville; twelve grandchildren, Tracy Young, Leslie Short, Jennifer Clodfelter, Darius Wayne Taylor, II, Jamie Groves, D J Lay, Jeffrey Wayne Taylor, Megan Taylor, and Christy Taylor; three step grandchildren, Jordan, Jaylyn, and Gabe; twelve great grandchildren, Tricia Young, Adam Young, Jared Anthony Young, Michael Short, Corissa Taylor, Andrew Taylor, Bryanna Freeman, Tiffany Tinnel, Zack Clodfelter, J W Groves, Jadyen Groves, and McKayla Lay; and eleven great great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 12, 2014 in the White Funeral Home at Summersville with Pastor Mark Coffman officiating. Interment will follow in the West Virginia Memorial Gardens at Calvin.

Friends may call at the funeral home on Wednesday one-hour prior to the funeral services.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.whitefuneralhomewv.com